

Benning Elementary Campus – Community Eligibility Provision
National School Lunch Program
School Year 2015-2016

DC Preparatory Academy, a charter management organization that currently serves five public charter schools in Washington DC, is currently participating in the District Of Columbia's National School Breakfast, Lunch and Snack Program. The program follows USDA meal pattern requirements, rules and regulations.

The Benning Elementary Campus has been certified for the Community Eligibility Provision (CEP). Participating in this program allows all children at that campus to receive lunch meals at no charge in SY 2015-16.
